

GROWTH DATA

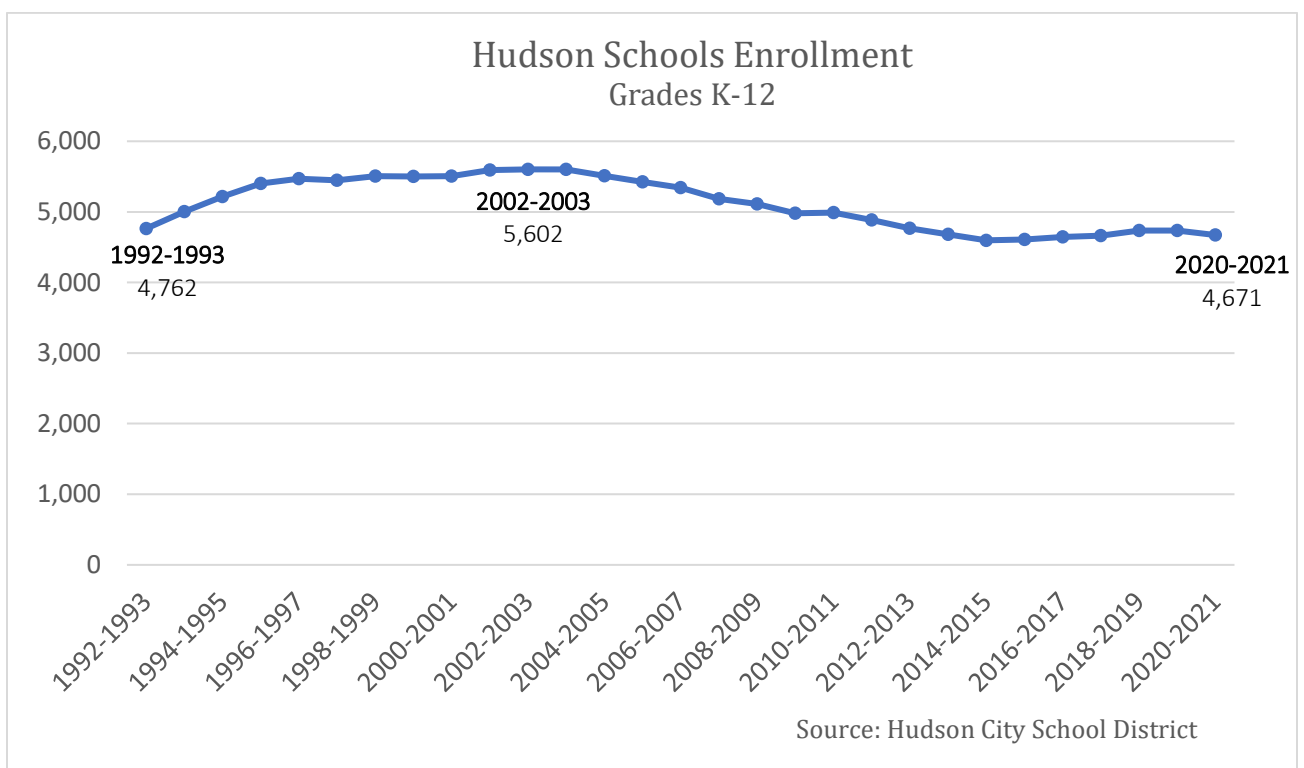

- Single family home permits are expected to increase slightly next year due to a planned subdivision. Overall, single family home permits have declined in the past 6 years.

- In the past 10 years, population increased 3.67%, or an average of 0.37% annually.
- In the past 20 years, population increased 2.99%, or an average of 0.15% annually.

- Median age increased about 1% annually over the past decade but began to decline in 2019. From 2019-2020, median age decreased 5% (46.1 to 43.9).
- The overall change from 2010-2020 is a 5.5% increase in median age.

- Hudson City Schools enrollment increased slightly in the past 3 years, but overall has declined 17% since the peak of 5,602 students in 2002.