Ms. Schrenk introduced the application by reviewing the site visit and the preservation consultant's comments.

Mr. Lawrence Folta, Folta Construction, discussed the consultant's comments point by point, some of the alternatives and associated costs.

The Board and applicants: Discussed the prior use of Hardie-Board in the Historic District and changing the dimensions of the Hardie-Board as diminishing the history of the house and in conflict with the Secretary of the Interior Standards. Board members reviewed the standards and questioned if the proposed improvements are reasonable allowances because of the high cost of removing all the nails and believing the Hardie-Board will closely match the existing look.

The applicant noted the existing damage to the aluminum siding and their desire to upgrade the house.

Mr. Reid recommended granting a Certificate of Appropriateness for a seven-inch siding reveal, Pella windows as submitted, trim board around the edges and the garage siding to match the main house with existing wood siding removed. The motion failed for lack of a second.

The application was continued to allow the consulting company to comment on the proposed changes.
