

2019 Sign Code Review Summary Chart

Sign Type	Current LDC		Proposed Update		Example
	Ground floor	Upper/lower level	Ground Floor	Upper/lower level
Building sign (permanent)	 Permit one wall, window, or awning sign		 Permit one wall or awning sign
Window Sign (Permanent)	 Regulated above as Building sign	 One sign (25%, 6 sq ft max)	 Permitted in addition to building sign above. 33% of total widow can be used	 33% of total widow can be used
Temporary Window Signs (Temporary)	 25% window area, size and number per district	 25% window area, size and number per district
Projecting sign (Permanent)	 One sign	 Must have 12 ft of first floor frontage	 One sign	 One at first floor access door
A frame Signs			 One sign	 One at first floor access
Ground Signs (permanent)	 One per lot, plus every 500 ft		 One per lot, plus every 300 ft, or fraction thereof
Ground Signs (Temporary)	 D5: 10 sq ft total per parcel (ground/banner) D7: 20 sq ft total per parcel (ground/banner)		 D5: 10 sq ft total per parcel (ground/banner) D7: 20 sq ft total per parcel (ground/banner)

Permitted

Not Permitted

Note: Upper Level tenants – the proposed update provides expanded ability to use A frame and projecting signs based on the street level access. Property owners and tenants would need to coordinate for multi-tenant buildings