University of Akron's Law School assists organizations in the process of establishing nonprofit status. They have offered to work with Hudson DEI to file all documentations for the 501cs . The fund will remain with Hudson Community Foundation after becoming their own 501c3 organization through the support of University of Akron's Law School.

Amount Requested:

$12,500

What is the time period covered by this grant request?

Morgan Foundation funds multi-year programs, projects that fall into a specific calendar or fiscal year, or custom timelines that take into account board meeting decision dates and program completion dates.

July 2021 – July 2022

Summarize the main objective(s) of your request in 50 words or less.

Develop the internal capacity of educators, government, civil society, youth, neighborhoods, faith-based communities in Hudson to facilitate hard conversations around race and empower participants with tools to develop and operationalize action plans to address root causes. The approach is a well-researched identity-based dialogue to collaborative action model called Sustained Dialogue.
