8. Correspondence and Council Comments

Mr. Sutton thanked everyone who participated in wearing an ugly sweater for the meeting, wished everyone a happy holiday season, and wished his daughter a happy birthday.

Mrs. Heater thanked everyone who helped with Christkindlmarkt. She also noted that there have been two severe accidents at Terex Road and SR 91. Mr. Sheridan responded, stating that the City received a grant and the intersection will be reconstructed in a year or two.

Mr. Banweg also thanked volunteers who helped with Christkindlmarkt and thanked residents for their feedback on the Fire/EMS study, stating that he was confident we will have the right model and right plan coming out of this study.

Dr. Bird commented on a great first year on Council and is looking forward to 2025.

Mr. Foster thanked everyone for supporting Christkindlmarkt, stating that the entire event is managed by Hudson Community Foundation to benefit German language program in the high school and middle school, exchange programs, and scholarships.

Mayor Anzevino thanked everyone who dropped off items for the clothing drive and the Little Tikes Company, whose employees collected 400 pairs of socks to donate. He also reminded residents about the Frosty Five race on December 24 and that the next Council meeting would be on January 7, 2025.

9. Report of Manager

Concerning the North Main Street alley, Mr. Sheridan provided a background of the infrastructure in the area and described the request by a few of the business owners for the City to pave the alley behind the stores, at a cost of $30,000.

Mr. Sheridan also provided an update on what work the City had completed following the August flood and what items were still pending.

Mr. Sheridan further stated that Council would receive a draft of the Fire/EMS study on Friday and the final version would be discussed at the January 28, 2025 workshop.
