7. Correspondence and Council Comments

Mr. Wooldredge read a letter from Nicole Alverson, President of the Hudson Area Chamber of Commerce, in support of proposed outdoor patio dining for Downtown 140, and expressed his personal support, as well. He reported that the Hudson Community Foundation is offering a grant program to support small businesses and restaurants in Hudson.

Mrs. Bigham reported on a recent Cemetery Board meeting and said that discussion topics included grave site restoration work, budgetary issues, and a number of other interesting projects.

Mr. Foster reported on a recent Environmental Awareness Committee meeting and said that members discussed the need for a recycling bin in the downtown area for the downtown merchants. Pending the May Financial Report, he offered support for this expense. Mrs. Bigham expressed disappointment after witnessing a worker in the downtown area this week emptying both recycling items and trash into the same stream. She noted that if the City pursues a recycling bin in the downtown, staff should ensure that the items are actually being recycled.

Mayor Shubert encouraged consideration and mindfulness about the challenging effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on individuals and businesses, as well as the additional challenges the nation faces due to concerns for all lives and emotional responses to recent events in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

8. Report of Manager

Ms. Howington said that the Police Chief will address public safety issues, including an update regarding local demonstrations and a status report on COVID-19, and the Finance Director will report on May financials.

She reported on City operations, commented on trash and recycling, work modifications, maintaining service levels, and a possible need for the City to review the Comprehensive Plan again in light of changes due to COVID-19. She also announced that Parks trails are two-way and asked that people to be mindful of trail etiquette and social distancing.

A. COVID-19 Update & Public Safety Report

Chief Tabak reported that COVID-19 restrictions have been lifted or modified, with no increase in complaints or problems, the City has reinstated solicitor permits, staff remains healthy, and equipment is good. Ms.

Howington commented that residents should not feel compelled to answer the door for a solicitor and should call 911 if they felt threatened.

He reported on a small group of protestors at the State Routes 91 / 303 intersection, describing the event as a calm vigil, very orderly, with no criminal acts and no policing or law enforcement issues. With many people feeling agitated and scared due to reports of violence elsewhere, he said that City's police staff is monitoring information and is highly trained and prepared to protect citizens. Ms. Schlademan thanked the Chief for allowing the peaceful protest and asked if the police are doing anything to counteract systemic racism. Chief Tabak said that police staff is very educated and compassionate, trained in areas such as crisis intervention, cultural diversity, and verbal judo.

Mrs. Bigham encouraged citizens to subscribe to emergency updates and Code Red alert, and Ms. Howington suggested that people also sign up for City news updates.

Chief Tabak also commented on the proposed DORA program from a law enforcement perspective, relating positive feedback received from other cities and providing full support for the program.

This matter was discussed.

B. Financial Update

Mr. Knoblauch shared financial information and impacts of COVID-19 during March through May, and he presented the financial materials attached to file #20-0081 (below). Discussion followed. Mr. Foster encouraged residents who ordinarily work outside of Hudson and who have been working remotely from home to complete and submit Regional Income Tax Agency Form 10A to request a refund of income taxes paid to another city in order to pay them to Hudson.
