

AN ORDINANCE TO ~~REPEAL~~AMEND CHAPTER 226 OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES RELATING TO CAMPAIGN FINANCE LIMITS AND REGULATIONS.

WHEREAS, campaign spending is a form of political speech protected by the First Amendment, and the government should not penalize citizens for engaging in political discourse and the democratic process; and

WHEREAS, excessively low campaign fundraising caps have led to less transparency in the political process in recent years; and

WHEREAS, campaign fundraising caps should not effectively block candidates from mounting an effective campaign and/or force candidates to spend an increasing amount of time raising money in small increments, distracting them from interacting with the public and their constituents; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, the City established a campaign finance limitation of $100; and

WHEREAS, even after inflation, raising the donation limit to $500 would represent a significant increase while still imposing a reasonable and legitimate regulation ensuring democratic equality and that all citizens have meaningful participation in Hudson's municipal elections; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of the City and its residents to ~~repeal~~amend campaign finance limits, ~~thereby restoring transparency to the political process and while still~~ allowing Hudson's residents to give voice to their First Amendment rights.
