7. Review of Charter Articles

A. Article IV (Continued, beginning at Section 4.03)

Discussion followed regarding the process for the removal of the Mayor and whether Council should be able to remove an independently-elected Mayor. There was consensus not to change the language in Section 4.03, as there are other avenues to remove the Mayor.

It was further noted that language in Section 4.03 referring to the start of the Mayor's term could also be used for Council.

There was consensus not to change the language in Section 4.04.

B. Article III

Under Section 3.01, there was consensus to change the term start date to match the language for the Mayor under Section 4.03. The Commission considered term limits for Council, as was also discussed for board and commission members, suggesting a new section under Article VII. There was consensus to amend the language to 12 years or three full elected terms, whichever is greater.

Under Section 3.02, there was consensus to change the first sentence to match the language in Section 4.03.

Regarding Section 3.03, there was discussion concerning the Council's role in communicating with staff. There was consensus not to change the language but a suggestion was made to include it in the Codified Ordinances if Council desired.

There was consensus to remove the newspaper publication in Section 3.08 to match the language suggested for Section 6.04.

Under Section 3.10, the Commission discussed various ways to compensate members of Council and the Mayor, including per meeting, per hour, or the minimum required to meet OPERS qualifications. Mr. Hoover volunteered to gather Council salary information of surrounding communities and distribute prior to the next meeting. It was determined that changes to this Section would be further discussed at a later date.

Regarding Section 3.13, the Commission discussed whether or not to include a process for censure. There was consensus not to change the language.

No changes were suggested for Section 3.04, Section 3.05, Section 3.06, Section 3.07, Section 3.09, Section 3.11, and Section 3.12.
